HANDLER DECLARES AFFAIR AS SOCIAL AND FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Over 450 couple treated themselves to one of the most successful Junior Proms in the history of the College, yesterday night at the gym. The music of Elliot Lawrence and his orchestra contributed no end to this affair which the Field House transformed to a place of beauty under a spring motif with real evergreens, pools and trel-

The "nine to one" affair was interrupted during the height of festivities by the crowning of the queen. Chairman, Len Cody, presented 10 finalists and three members of the Lay Faculty, Dr. Leahy, Dr. Vincent O. McBrien and Mr. Reginald Smith, cast the final ballots for the queen. Miss Joan Cunningham of Albertus Magnus College, the date and to be of Vin Scully, was awarded the golden crown.

The Prom Committee, headed by Phil Chandler, has announced that the affair ended not only as a social success but also was financially pleasing. The pleasure of all those present was attested to the merits of the untiring efforts of Chairman Chandler and his committee. They are to be congratulated.

Prom weekend festivities were continued on Saturday afternoon with the playing of the Holy Cross-Dartmouth baseball game. On Saturday evening a dance at the Hillcrest Country Club attracted many couples.

SENIOR WEEK PROGRAM OUT

Activities to End with Senior Ball June 8

The program for Senior Week, 1949, has been announced by Phil Murphy, Acting President of the Senior Class. The week's activities begin with the annual Senior Retreat, and end with the Senior Ball on the evening of graduation day.

The retreat will begin at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 2, and will end after Mass on the following Monday, June 6. Rehearsals for commencement exercises will take place on Saturday, June 4, at 1:00 p.m. The next day, Sunday, June 5, Baccalaureate exercises will be held in the St. Joseph Memorial Chapel. The Rev. Edward A. Conway, S.J., '24, of New York will deliver the address.

An outing atop Mount Pakachoag will be the feature of Class Day on the following Monday. In the evening the Class Banquet will be held in Kimball Hall. Tuesday will be Class Reunion Day for the alumni.

The alumni program begins at 9 a.m. with a Memorial Mass for all deceased alumni in the Chapel. At 2 p.m. that afternoon, Holy Cross will meet Boston College on the Fitton Field diamond in a traditional game. The alumni will hold their banquet that evening also in Kimball Hall.

The week will be climaxed on Wednesday. (Turn to Page Six)

Ryan To Be Next Key Chairman

Newly-Elected Officers Installed at Banquet

At a meeting held last week, the members of the Purple Key elected their new officers for the coming year. Thomas J. Ryan, of Manhasset, Long Island, a member of Alpha Sigma Nu and an Associate Editor of the TOMAHAWK, was elected to the office of Chairman. The Vice-Chairman is from Worcester and is the well-known Glee Club member, Jim McNamara. Vincent Mullaney of Fall River, who was elected secretary is also Sports Editor of the Purple.

The officers were officially installed at a banquet that was held in the upper room of the Putnam and Thurston Restaurant. The moderator, Fr. Owen McKenna and invited guests in the persons of Fathers Cyril Delaney and Paul Barry were also present.

Recently the Purple Key announced the candidates for membership in the organization. From the class of 1950, the following were named: Edward J. Chandler, chairman of the Junior Prom; James J. Connors, who is secretary of the Junior Class; Richard E. Eagan, a member of the track and golf teams; James W. O'Connell, a (Turn to Page Six)

Three Juniors Are New B.J.F. Officers

Flaherty Tops Slate; Hallinan, Introcaso Elected V.P. and Sec.

The B.J.F. Debating Society has announced that a new slate of three officers will conduct the destinies of the senior Holy Cross forensic society during next year's season. The three new officers are all Juniors and members of this year's intercollegiate squad which has enjoyed so fine a record.

Succeeding Richard P. Buellesbach in the office of President will be John J. Flaherty, one of the outstanding members of the B.J.F. for the past year. Flaherty will occupy the difficult post of leading the society through its House as well as intercollegiate debates during the 1949-50 season. The retiring President, Dick Buellesbach is a member of the Senior Class and has won wide acclaim during the past two years for his argumentative skill.

The post of Vice-President has been taken over by Joe Hallinan, another member of this year's team. He succeeds John Kaullagher, another Senior who has helped to make the B.J.F. the highly successful organization that it is.

Louis Introcaso is the new Secretary of the society filling the gap left by the graduation in June of the present incumbent, Rick O'Shea. Lou has been an active member of the intercollegiate squad.

HAL McINTYRE FOR SR. BALL

Free Pictures to Be Taken for Booklet

The Senior Ball Committee has announced several new attractions to be featured at the graduation night affair. Arrangements have been made to take individual pictures of each couple attending, and copies of the photos will be sent free of charge to each senior and his date. These pictures can be inserted in a space provided for that purpose in the Senior ball booklet, which will also be given to each person attending.

Ballroom Picture

A picture of the ballroom will also be taken during the ball, and a copy will also be mailed to each couple. Another feature will be the cafeteria decorations, which will add a holiday atmosphere to the beloved "caf". The music of Hal McIntyre will be relayed to the cafeteria by means of loudspeakers for the convenience of those who take advantage of the refreshments offered there.

Dates' Names Due

Seniors are reminded again that they must turn in the names of their dates to Ed Ackell, Carlin 304, as soon as possible, so that they may be included in the booklet. Also, the deadline for the submission of patrons' names is fast approaching. All tickets must be purchased before May 25. There will be no ticket sale at the door. Corsages may be ordered through the committee at reduced prices.

George Smith of first Carlin is heading the ticket committee and urges all seniors who have not yet done so to purchase their bids.

Chairman Joe Carey and the members of the Ball Committee will make public additional information at a later date.

REGAN CALLS FOR MORE INTEREST AND GREATER ACTIVITY

Richard M. Regan, '50, was elected President of the Student Government yesterday in an uncontested election. Edward P. Reardon, '50, was elected Vice-President in another uncontested spot. For Secretary the students voted in Charles F. Keenan, Jr. '51, and the new Treasurer is Thomas A. O'Connor, '52.

Over 300 votes were cast in this election. A much smaller number was expected because of the lack of interest in the election. This lack of interest was accentuated by the fact that the candidates for both President and Vice-President were unopposed.

Regan hails from Somerset, Mass., and is a graduate of Coyle High School in Taunton. He recently served as dance chairman for the Bristol County Club. He is the representative to the Congress from Alumni III, and was Chairman of the Room Committee this year, the first time that a student group handled the distribution of rooms.

The new Vice-President is a popular member of the Worcester Undergraduate Club. Reardon graduated from South High here in Worcester, and is a Day-Student representative to the Congress. He is also a Knight of Columbus, and served in the Navy for two and a half years.

Charlie Keenan is from Milton and a graduate of B.C. High. He is a representative from Wheeler II, and also served on the committee for the recent Sophomore Smoker. In addition, he is Assistant Managing Editor of the TOMAHAWK, and a member of the Sodality. Two and a half years in the Army interrupted his college career.

Now that we need no longer worry over deadlines and re-writes, misprints and advertisements; we, the Editors of the TOMAHAWK, welcome a chance to turn the table and compose a letter from the Editors. Our sole purpose in this letter is to convey to you, the members of the student body, our sincere appreciation for all that you have done to make ours such an enjoyable task. For the past eight months we have worked to put out a paper which would serve the needs and the wants of the student body. The highest approbation which we can receive is the knowledge that we have merited your praise. It was to that end that we have labored. In this, our final issue, we express the hope that we have been successful.

IN APPRECIATION

In this last issue we should like to express our thanks to all those who have contributed to making this year a successful one for the TOMAHAWK. First, we should like to express our gratitude to Fr. Rector and the Administration for their cooperation in all matters, which greatly smoothed the way. Secondly, we should like to thank Fr. Barry, our moderator, for his sincere interest and constant encouragement. Although we have occasionally differed on matters of policy, his liberal attitude played a great part in the success of our efforts. We should further like to thank our advertisers, particularly the National Advertising Service, for the fine manner in which they supported the TOMAHAWK, to our mutual benefit. Also we should like to extend our appreciation to our printers, the Washington Press, especially those men in the Composing Room who exhibited great patience and sincere cooperation in getting this paper into print. To Station WCHC for their assistance with the problems involved in putting the TOMAHAWK news on the air, and to the Holy Cross Athletic Association for their interest in our coverage, we also offer our thanks. The Editorial Department wishes particularly to thank the latter for the splendid cooperation which the Athletic Association extended in the matter of giving something more than moral support to the informal hockey team. Finally, we should like to thank all the many organizations on the Hill for the excellent way in which they aided us in gathering and presenting the news; and to our subscribers, our Alumni, and all other readers who have showed such an interest in our work.

A FITTING TRIBUTE

The last Student-Faculty repast of this fading school year, the All-Sports banquet, was an artistic as well as a culinary success Monday night. Under the sponsorship of the Purple Key, all of Holy Cross' representative athletic teams were the recipients of a richly-merited feast. We hope that the Key will continue to combine with Mr. Moran's splendid cuisine, and make this dinner an annual affair. In addition to Fr. Rector's fine speech, two speakers made statements worthy of consideration and comment. Mr. Cervini exhorted our Varsity men to be athletes, scholars, and gentlemen. With the commercialization of amateurs in full bloom throughout the colleges in the land, it is heart-warming indeed to hear our men referred to as not just football and basketball players, but the scholars and gentlemen which they definitely are. The other statement was that of Mr. Gene Flynn, who thanked the Student Body for its wholehearted support of our Purple-shirted teams. We admit that cheers may not win ball games, but we like to think that they help. Still, the most significant event of all was the tremendous ovation given to Fr. Hart, Director of Intramural Athletics. At H.C. there is stress on intercollegiate competition — this is as we would have it. But we are proud that this emphasis is not to the exclusion of a healthy intramural program. We believe that all can justly acclaim our intramural activities and we are proud to have had a part in publicizing them.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Mr. William A. Eagan, Jr., Editor
Tomahawk
College of the Holy Cross
Worcester 3, Mass.

Dear Bill:

Father Hart has just acquainted me with your splendid effort in behalf of the missions. He forgot to tell me the most important part — who won the game?

I do not see how you made $70.00 on a ten cent admission. Perhaps you could give me some advice on how to get some money for the missions. That's my job.

Asking God's blessing on all your work, especially during the coming examinations, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

(Rev.) John H. Collins, S.J.
Director.

Dear Sir:

The members of the Dramatic Society of Holy Cross College extend sincere and heartfelt thanks to Reverend Frederick Gallagher, S.J., Moderator of the Dramatic Society, for his untiring efforts, his inspiring leadership, and his constant aid to us as individuals and as a group during the past years.

Production after production has come and gone on the stage of Fenwick Hall, high praises have been sung for the character portrayal of this or that person, but one rarely hears mention of the modest priest who has, thru his efforts, made all this possible.

Therefore, we feel that it is fitting and proper that in this the last edition of the TOMAHAWK for this academic year, we should pay tribute to the man who is largely responsible for re-activating a Society dormant during the war years, and guiding it along for the past three years, to the most successful period in its entire history.

Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life:

Weep to the tale of Willy T8
Who met a girl whose name was K8
He courted her at a fearful r8
And begged her soon to become his m8.
"I would if I could," said lovely K8
"I pity your lonely, unhappy st8.
But alas, alas, you've come too l8
I'm married already, the mother of 8."

Dedicated to the long lines of waiting day-hops in the Cafeteria:

There was a line, a mighty line
Before the lunchroom door,
And Willie, waiting for his lunch
Was number Twenty-Four.
But number 3 had 12 good friends,
And number Eight, Eleven,
And Willie found to his surprise
He now was Forty-Seven.
And tho the people far up front
Were moving quite a lot
The longer Willie stood in line
The farther back he got.
This struck the boy as mighty silly
But lunchtime never came for Willie.

OVER THE HILL

By RICK O'SHEA

This will be the last column that I shall write while associated with the TOMAHAWK and so there seems to be a few pertinent remarks that should be made regarding this association. It has been fun. I, for my part, have enjoyed batting out this column every week and, if perchance any one of you at any time found some small item over which to chuckle or some juicy rumor to enliven your bull sessions then my humble efforts have been sufficiently rewarded. If not, well, I tried. With notes like this.

If your favorite date goes for a particular crooner, she could probably find him in New York this weekend. Dick Haymes is at the Roxy; Der Bingle is in town to discuss TV; Vic Damone at a local nitery; Perry Como is always in town and Frank Sinatra will be around for a show while doing some takes for his new movie.

Rumor of the Week. And this is a good one. Carmencita, daughter of Franco, is supposed to be flying around Gotham hidden under a blonde wig.

Fastest payoff in Broadway history. The backers of "Kiss Me, Kate" are in the chips already. The show has netted $12,000 for each of its 19 weeks at the Century Theatre.

Hottest attraction of the moment is the new Roller Derby. Packing crowds into whatever arena it takes over. The sport gets a terrific shot in the arm from TV where it is featured usually more than once a week. It is not a sport. It has been in New York's 22nd Engineers Armory for the past six weeks where the following injuries occurred: a girl with 24 stitches and a concussion; a girl with a broken pelvis; and these lesser injuries spread over six players; 2 broken wrists, two broken ribs, a broken toe, a broken ankle and a leg broken in six places. This is a terrific spectator sport.

If anyone asks you why you go out so often, simply remind them that 90% of all accidents occur in the home and you just don't want to get hurt. And then, there's the wag who claims that all these accidents in the homes would be so bad if we men didn't have to eat most of them.

Billy Eckstine, current sensation in the crooner set, due in Worcester Sunday eve, following a very successful engagement at the Paramount in NYC where he was the greatest attraction at the box office since the heyday of Frank Sinatra.

A synthetic tire supposedly all set to go on the market that will give the user an estimated 75,000 miles.

Suggest you ponder last week's Derby winner and then if you still play the nags, send for that man in the little white coat.

The ultimate in retail store gimmick practices was reached last week when a Denver drug store advertised a loss-ledged special on "brand-new" U.S. postage stamps, three for 8c.

Did you realize that the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund has taken in over 3 million dollars in its three years of existence to fight cancer? And did you know that the government kicks in only 3 million each annum?

That makes the fund the supplier of one-quarter of the money spent on cancer each year. That also makes them the recipients of one deep bow from the column.

Well, that just about hits the 30 mark for this column. It's been real.

Thought of the Week:

The fire in some girl's eyes is quenched by the water on their brains.

LOOKING AT THE BRIGHT SIDE OF THINGS:

Funeral Director (to aged mourner): "How old are you?"

Aged Mourner: "I'll be 98 next month."

Funeral Director: "Hardly worth going home is it?"
(Well, everybody is entitled to make a buck, isn't it?)

— B.C. Heights

IT COULD HAPPEN HERE MAYBE?

Professor: "You in the back of the room, what was the date of the signing of the Magna Charta?"

"I dunno."

"You don't, eh? Well, let's try something else."

"Who was Bonnie Prince Charlie?"

"I dunno."

"Well, then, can you tell me what the Tennis Oath was?"

"I dunno."

"You don't! I assigned this material last Friday. Where were you doing last night?"

"I was drinking beer with some friends."

"You were! You have the audacity to stand there and tell me a thing like that. How do you ever expect to pass this course?"

"Wal, I don't, mister. Ya see, I just came in to fix the radiator here."

E. GRISANTI TALKS AND WRITES HIS WAY TO WIN B.J.F. ORATORY AND WCHC SCRIPT AWARDS

GRISANTI WINS WCHC CATHOLIC RADIO SCRIPT CONTEST

Eugene P. Grisanti has been named winner of the Catholic Radio Script Contest conducted by WCHC and sponsored by the Worcester County Catholic Alumni Sodality of Our Lady. The prize script, entitled "The Rose That Is a Prayer", is an original dramatization of the history of the Rosary, and will be produced on WCHC by Grisanti on next Monday evening at 9:00 o'clock. Guest players from Worcester State Teachers College will assist.

Members of the Alumni Sodality council will be guests of WCHC for the broadcast, and after the play Joseph W. Riordan, Prefect of the Alumni Sodality will make the presentation of the award, a cash prize of fifty dollars.

Since the campus station will end its regular broadcast schedule on Friday of this week, the other scripts submitted for the contest will be held over until the next scholastic year, when it is hoped that many of them will be produced. Special honorable mention was given to the following in the script contest: John C. Hayes, Hugh E. Bradshaw, John Singleton, and Joseph A. Califano. Judges were Rev. J. Gerard Mears, S.J., Dr. Francis P. O'Hara, and Major William F. Longwell.

Anyone wishing back copies of the TOMAHAWK may obtain them in the office next Monday evening after supper.

EUGENE P. GRISANTI, '51, winner of WCHC Script Contest and the B.J.F. Oratorical Contest.

BEAN CONTEST

The winner of first prize in guessing the number of beans in a jar, conducted by a local florist prior to the prom, is George Gallogly of the junior class, and member of the track team. The correct number of beans was 707, and Gallogly guessed 700.

Second place was taken by Jim Dieckleman, football star, and a junior. Harry Brodeur, also a junior, won third place. All winners will receive corsages, which can be picked up anytime, with a two-day notice in advance.

B.J.F. ORATORICAL CONTEST FINALS HELD TUESDAY

The Oratorical Contest, which was sponsored by the B.J.F. Debating Society, reached its climax on Tuesday evening at Kimball Auditorium, as the finalists competed for the cash awards which will be presented to the winners by the Dean. Each and every finalist proved himself capable and outstanding in presenting his own topic and as a result the contest was a distinct success.

Gene Grisanti won the first award, presenting as his topic, "An Expectant World". The second prize was awarded to John Hurley for his discussion on the subject, "Disaster in China". John North speaking on the topic, "The Negro Question", won the third prize. The other finalists were Joe Hallinan, who spoke on, "A World Awaits", Emmett Ryan, whose topic was, "Father of the American Navy", and Thomas McMahon, who presented a discussion on, "John V. Power".

John Flaherty was the Chairman of the Contest. The judges were Fr. Daniel F. Ryan, S.J., Fr. George R. Fuir, S.J., and Mr. Thomas J. Spillane, S.J., of the faculty.

LAST CONCERT TOMORROW

H.C. Music Clubs End Season at Lawrence

After a fine performance in Bristol, R.I., last Tuesday night, the Holy Cross Music Clubs terminate their highly successful twenty-five concert season at Lawrence, Mass., tomorrow evening. It is only fitting that the final concert of the season should be in Lawrence, the home of Sam Caudella, who has done so much for the Cross Music Clubs.

Last night, however, all eyes turned to Carl's Restaurant, located at the Worcester Cut-off, where the Glee Club, Band, and Philharmonic Orchestra gathered for the annual Music Clubs Banquet. Fr. Joseph J. Shea, S.J., moderator of the organization, was present along with Fr. Arthur D. Madden, S.J., assistant moderator, and Mr. J. Edward Bouvier.

On touring quite thoroughly the states of Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Connecticut, the '48-'49 version of the Holy Cross Music Clubs has completed a hard, lengthy, but very successful season.

TOM HEWES ELECTED PRESIDENT OF HUB UNDERGRADUATES

Thomas F. Hewes was elected president of the Boston Club in the elections held last week for next year's officers. Chosen vice-president and representing the future juniors was John Costello. Jack Mulvihill of the Freshman class led the balloting for the secretary-treasurer spot.

The new president has served on various dance committees and was Chairman of this year's Christmas Dance. He is also Asst. Sports Editor of the TOMAHAWK. Costello is a Student Government representative, a member of the Purple Key, and an active member of the Easter and Christmas Dance Committees. Jack Mulvihill is also a Purple Key man, and a TOMAHAWK sports reporter.

The ballroom committee has reported that the main ballroom of the Copley-Plaza has been obtained for the post-Harvard game dance next Fall and the Imperial Ballroom of the Statler for Boston College Victory Dance of next year. Bill Sullivan, Ron O'Hanley, and Tom Hewes served on the ballroom committee.

SWAN SONG

Once again it's time to say,
 Farewell to things in a scholastic way;
 Farewell to texts, classes and friends,
 Blue-books, Prefects, and short week-ends;
 So-long to the room and board we've kept,
 In the room we've worked, on the board we've slept;
 Good-bye to the Bookstore and even the "Caf",
 Where we've gathered at night for many a laugh;
 But the saddest farewell, the one that most wrecks,
 Is the one that we say to those G.I. checks!

Navy Notes

★ The formal dress parade of the entire NROTC Battalion will be held at 4 p. m. on next Monday afternoon at Fitton (Football) Field. At this time the following awards will be presented to outstanding students of the Naval Unit. The Massachusetts Society of the Sons of the American Revolution Medal will be awarded to the Outstanding Naval ROTC Student, Walter J. Gallagher, Jr.; The C. Julian Wheeler Cup to the Outstanding Freshman NROTC Student, John F. Half, who will also receive a twenty-five dollar award for the best Freshman Term Paper submitted on Naval History; and a Parker pen and pencil set will be presented to the outstanding member of both the NROTC Rifle and Pistol Teams — James J. Wittick and John P. Leemhuis, respectively.

In addition to college dignitaries, also present will be Admiral C. Julian Wheeler, USN (Ret), who will make the award to the outstanding freshman. The college authorities have been invited, and all members of the faculty and student body are cordially invited to attend the ceremony.

★ The following members of the Class of 1952 have enlisted in the Marine Corps PLC (Platoon Leaders Class) Program, and will spend a 6 weeks training period at Quantico, Va., for two summers: Joseph Buegler, Philip Dooley, Thomas Fallon, Lawrence Silverson, Charles Foley, and Harold Ready.

BOOKLET TALLY SHOWS RISE

Total of Two Thousand Pamphlets Sold Here

2,018! That's the number of pamphlets Holy Cross students bought this past school year. Not bad. It probably will surprise a number of students that those pamphlet racks in the caf and day-hop room do more than gather dust and take up room.

Of the 2,018 pamphlets sold, 1,510 were sold at the Resident Student rack in the caf and 508 at the Day student stand in the day-hop room. Most of the pamphlets sold were, surprisingly, ten cent pamphlets, 1225 to be exact, although about the same number of nickel pamphlets were put out as dime ones. The Sodalties also sold a few 15 centers, 90 of them, and a very few quarter ones, 24.

Messrs. James N. Haggerty, promoter of the Resident stand and Charles F. Maloney, boss of the day student one, have come up with some interesting figures on just what type of pamphlets HC students buy. As you may have guessed, those on morals lead the bunch with pamphlets about marriage a close second. Others, in order of popularity are: Non-Catholic sects, Philosophy, Encyclicals, Confession, and Labor. Those on devotion do not sell well.

The five most popular pamphlets of the year are: 1. Frank Youth Quizzes; 2. Going Steady; 3. Ethics of Commercial Farming; 4. What to do on a Date; and 5. Novena to Our Lady of Fatima. "Going Steady" has been a best-seller ever since it came out. The "Ethics of Commercial Farming" sells only at Holy Cross. You figure it out. The Saints who are the most popular are: 1. St. Thomas Aquinas; 2. St. Ignatius Loyola, and 3. St. Augustine. The Jesuits will be glad to know that 27 pamphlets of "What Is A Jesuit" were sold; 38 others are interested also in the priesthood.

The most popular printing house, although they do not have many pamphlets, is the Trappist House, and the most popular writer is John A. O'Brien of Notre Dame University.

With the possible exception of the "Ethics of Commercial Farming" which defies all reason why it sells, Holy Cross students are very much like the rest of Catholic colleges in their choice of pamphlets.

The only hope of the pamphleteers, Haggerty and Maloney, is that more of the students will pay for the pamphlets.

The students and faculty of the College extend their deepest sympathies to Richard P. Reynolds, '50, on the death of his father. He will be remembered in our prayers.

STAFF NAMED FOR PATCHER

McNally Announces Men for 1950 Yearbook

John J. McNally, Editor-in-Chief of the 1950 Purple Patcher, last evening announced the first appointments to the '50 yearbook.

There will be four Associate Editors. Representing the boarders are Robert T. Kennedy, John B. Pickard and George J. McVey. The fourth Associate Editor is Edward P. Reardon, of Worcester, who represents the day-hops.

The Administrative Staff, yet far from complete, is as follows: John E. Dowd and John C. Fitzmaurice are Co-Profile Editors. Normand P. Choquette is head of the Photography Department and Thomas F. Hewes assumes the post of Sports Editor. Thomas J. Ryan will take up the duties of Activities Editor.

These are but a few of the many positions which must be filled before work on the '50 Patcher can begin. More department heads will be appointed next fall, as well as many others whose assistance is most imperative for the completion of a successful yearbook. A good art man is needed. So, too, another man, preferably a day-hop, to assist in handling the profiles of day students. A day-hop is also sought for the Photography Dept. These, and many other posts, are open to all interested. For further information, see Jack McNally on second Alumni.

The '50 Patcher has already signed a contract with the Wheelan Studios of New York City, who have a studio in Denholm & McKay's, downtown Worcester, where Senior portraits will be taken.

Charles J. O'Connor, Jr., Business Manager of the yearbook also announces the appointment of two key men to the business staff. They are James J. Caulfield, Jr., Advertising Manager, and Arthur C. Smith, Jr., Circulation Manager.

RICHARD M. REGAN, '50, newly elected President of the Student Government.

Student Gov't.

Tom O'Connor from Niagara Falls, N. Y. He went to Canisius High in Buffalo, and has been President of the Freshman Debating Society this year. He was also representative to the Congress from O'Kane IV this year, and is a Knight of Columbus.

Interviewed by a TOMAHAWK reporter, Regan said that he hopes to create more interest in the Student Government and to make it a more active organization than it has been this year.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE EXHIBIT

Through the courtesy of the Department of State, the Dinand Library has been featuring since May 8, and will continue to feature for the remainder of the year, a display of publications on foreign affairs. Over 20,000 pages of this highly informative material are being distributed to the various collegiate libraries for the purpose of acquainting the student bodies with such international phases of activity as atomic energy, German occupation problems, international trade, United Nations, and the European Recovery Program.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

NO cock-of-the-walk was poor, sad, seedy Sheedy when he found loose dandruff on his comb. Now that he's a Wildrooter, he has something to crow about and so will you. Wildroot Cream-Oil gives you neat, well-groomed hair all day long without a trace of oil or grease. Makes it easy to keep that favorite chick in your coupe forever! It relieves annoying dryness and removes so much loose, ugly dandruff that you really have to scratch to find it! Peck on down to your favorite drug counter and bring back a hen full of non-alcoholic Wildroot Cream-Oil containing Lanolin. Always ask your barber for a professional application! And set on this thought—Wildroot Cream-Oil is again and again the choice of men who put good grooming first.

JUNE THIRTEENTH TO BE HOLY CROSS NIGHT AT BOSTON POPS

The Holy Cross Alumni Club of Boston has invited the undergraduate Boston Club to enjoy Holy Cross night at the Pops Concert on Monday, June 13th. President Arthur Fair has announced that 100 tickets have been allotted the undergraduates for this last gathering before the summer vacation.

The ticket sale will start today and end on May 20th. The supply of tickets is plentiful — enough for fifty couples—but all tickets that are not sold by May 20th will have to be returned to the alumni at that time to satisfy their demand.

Tickets are priced at $2.50 per person for floor seats and $1.50 for balcony seats. Tables on the floor are so arranged as to accommodate five couples apiece. The Concert is held at Symphony Hall.

All members of the Boston Club will be contacted in their rooms as soon as possible. Those on the ticket committee, as announced by President Art Fair includes Dick Sullivan, Carlin 122, Jack Kent, Beaven 219, John Costello, Wheeler 337, Jack Butler, Alumni 122, George Foley, O'Kane 477, Bob Fair, Fenwick 436, and Phil Sullivan 421.

City Undergrads Hold Parents' Night on Hill

The most successful Parents' Night program ever sponsored by the Worcester Undergraduate Club took place last Sunday night, when more than 300 parents, friends and relatives of the day students gathered on the Hill.

The program got underway with members of the student body and their invited guests attending Benediction in the Chapel. Rev. Raymond F. X. Cahill, S.J., moderator, was celebrant. Soloists were Joseph K. Zemaitis and William Monahan, accompanied by James Fitzgibbons.

Following Benediction the program adjourned to Kimball Auditorium where the Day Hop talent performed. John E. Bennison, co-chairman, welcomed those in attendance and introduced Maurice A. Kelliher, president.

Co-Chairman Henry A. Sullivan then was master of ceremonies. The "Day-Hop" Band was the first act, and was received by hearty applause. Those members making up the band were Joseph Love, Jr., Joseph F. Whalen, Jr., James Alean, George Allen, Thomas Monahan, Vincent Connolly and Walter F. Biggins.

The band served as an introduction for the "Barber-Shop" quartet and found Robert Donoghue, Francis Sweeny and Walter F. Flynn coming forth with some excellent harmony.

ELECTIONS FOR MET CLUB HELD

Dagher, Cullen, Casey, Mannix New Officers

George Dagher swept over Tom O'Hara and Al Canedo in an election which raised him to the position of President of the Metropolitan Club. George had formerly been Vice-President of the Club and Chairman of the Easter formal.

Frank Cullen became Vice-President in the voting which also elected John Mannix as Treasurer and Jim Casey as Secretary. Cullen had already been both Secretary and Treasurer of the Club.

The Met Club also introduced a "first" in these elections. It consisted of a board of trustees, composed of the newly elected George McVey, Paul McEvoy, Charles Boothby and Charles Marcantoni. This board will draw up and ratify a constitution.

Walter "Never-took-a-lesson" Zawistoski, piano soloist, was well received by the appreciative audience.

The most entertaining part of the program was presented in the form of a skit which featured James G. Reardon as announcer, and Michael Morrill, William Gaffney, John Houlihan, John Bennison, and David "Tennis-Match" Phelan, as marionettes. The entertainment was concluded with a one-act play, "The Old Block", starring John "Doc" Moynagh, John King, Thomas Mulhern and Donald Smith.

SCORING AGAINST DARTMOUTH

Bob Dittmeyer, sophomore leftfielder, crosses home plate in third inning of last Saturday's 6-0 shutout win over Dartmouth. Bob Lavery gives the slow down signal for Dittmeyer, who was driven across on Eddie Polak's single.

DARTMOUTH GETS BLANKED, 6-0, AS JUNIOR PROM CROWDS WATCH

Matt Formon Sparkles in Hurling Three Hitter; Cross' Twelve Hit Drive Beats Indians' Al Quirk

The Varsity baseball team backed up Matty Formon's sparkling three hit pitching with some timely hitting to trounce Dartmouth, 6-0, last Saturday at Fitton Field and send a Junior Prom weekend crowd of 1500 home happy. Matty, showing no sign of the sore arm which troubled him last week, looked immense as he struck out seven and walked none in the course of registering his fourth victory.

The Cross broke the scoring ice in the second inning as they pushed across two runs after one was out. Bob Heon reached first safely on an infield hit and went to second as third baseman Dick Desmond threw wild in an attempt to nip Heon at first. Joe Frechette who hit the ball hard all day slammed a single to center field to advance Heon to third. Coyle's tap to the pitcher scored Heon. Formon then slammed a single off pitcher Al Quirk's glove to score Frechette with the second run.

Sew It Up In Third

The Purple reached Quirk for three runs in the third inning to put the game on ice. Bob Dittmeyer led off with a scratch single. "Lefty" Galvin grounded out but Ed Polak came through with a single to score Dittmeyer. Doc Lavery's long triple to right center tallied Polak. Frechette's second single counted Lavery with the fifth Holy Cross run.

Quirk's wildness helped Holy Cross add an insurance run in the fourth inning. Successive walks to Dittmeyer, Galvin, and Porter followed by Lavery's single counted the final Crusader tally.

Meanwhile Formon was sailing along smoothly baffling the Dartmouth swingers with his fast ball and curve. He didn't allow a hit until Desmond, the leadoff man in the fifth inning, exploded a double to right field. Matt bore down however, and retired the next three batters on routine ground balls. Quirk's Texas league single in the sixth and Desmond's one base blow in the seventh were the only other hits off Matt.

Formon had flawless control and he was constantly ahead of the hitters. Errorless support afield helped the Purple record their fifth straight victory and their seventh in nine starts. Porter, Lavery, Galvin and Frechette each with two hits paced the Crusader twelve hit attack.

Netmen Beaten In Three Matches

Springfield, Boston U. Rhode Island State Top Cross, 9-0, 7-2, 7-2

The Holy Cross tennis team took it on the chin in their three matches during the week. Both Boston University and Rhode Island State stopped the Crusader netmen by identical 7-2 scores while Springfield scored a clean 9-0 sweep on Wednesday afternoon.

Terriers Too Strong

On Saturday B.U. had just too much for the Purple and though they tried hard they just could not hold their own with the Terriers, dropping the match, 7-2. Fred Feuerbach and Charlie Dullea started off the action. Feuerbach had difficulty following the angle shots and fast service of the B.U. ace and was defeated 6-2, 6-2.

Frank Reim won his first set, 6-4 from Jack Connant but then dropped two straight sets 6-2, 6-1. Gerry Kierce salvaged some glory for the Purple by defeating Les Dutka in straight sets 6-2, 6-2.

Bill Luby bowed to Nat Barry 6-2, 6-3 and Jack Walsh was defeated by Ebben Caldwell 8-6, 6-4. Walsh gave the B.U. man a lot of trouble but Caldwell outlasted him. Pete Harrity was the only other victor for the Crusaders as he set down Steve Frank 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

The Crusader doubles combinations all went down to defeat as the Terriers made a clean sweep. Feuerbach and Reim suffered their first defeat in duo competition as they bowed to Dullea and Dutka 8-6, 6-4. Kierce and Walsh were toppled by Connant and

FORMON HURLS FIVE HITTER TO BEAT HARVARD, 6-1

Big Righthander Gets Fifth Win of Season; Porter Clubs Homer to Lead Ten Hit Attack

Holy Cross approached the half-way mark in its twenty game schedule with a 6-1 victory over Harvard at Soldiers Field in Cambridge Wednesday afternoon. It was the sixth straight win for Jack Barry's squad and their second over the Crimson, who were defeated, 3-1, in the Crusaders' opener almost a month ago.

Matt Formon, the big righthander who sat in the bullpen all last season, pitched a neat five-hit game, striking out eight while walking only two, and receiving errorless support from his mates. It was Formon's fifth win of the year. He has lost one, to Yale.

The Cross opened the scoring in the top of the first when Bill Porter singled, went to second on the first of five errors by Ernie Mannino, the Harvard third baseman, and came home on Eddie Polak's long triple to left-center.

Nine Harvard Errors

Harvard tied the score in the second when their big first baseman, Red Coulson, singled, advanced to second on an infield out, and scored on Herb Neal's single. That ended the Crimson scoring, except in the error column where the Crusaders kept ground balls pouring through the sieve on the left side of the Harvard infield, with the grand total of nine errors keeping coach "Stuff" McInnis awake far into Thursday morning.

In the fourth, Polak cracked his second of three hits, a single, Bob Lavery walked, Bob Heon sacrificed but Mannino helpfully bobbled the bunt and the bases were loaded. Joe Frechette popped to Tom Cavanaugh at second base but Red Coyle came through, with the squeeze play on, with a rolling bunt to Coulson, who remembered his Ivy League manners and politely held the ball as Polak raced over the plate. It was scored as a hit for Coyle.

Porter Hits Homer

Porter led off the next inning with a towering drive over Jack Caulfield in left which rolled on and on as the Crusader batting leader touched every base for the first Cross homer of the season. Two more errors by Mannino put Dittmeyer and Polak on base and the sophomore left-fielder came home on Lavery's single.

The Cross scored their last two runs in the eighth when Heon singled, went to second on shortstop Mort Dunn's late overthrow of first, advanced to third on Dunn's carbon copy of Frechette's grounder, and Coyle walked, filling the bases. Formon flied to Hal Moffie in center, Heon coming in after the catch and Frechette going to third. Coyle, with his third hit of the season safely in the records, was picked off first while Porter was drawing a base on balls. Dittmeyer then singled for his second hit and Frechette scored to complete the afternoon's excitement.

Eaglets Take 11 Inning Decision, 5-4, After Four Run Crusader Rally Evens Score in Ninth

The Boston College Eaglets came up with a run in the last half of the 11th to gain a 5-4 decision over the Holy Cross Frosh at Alumni Field in Newton Saturday. The defeat was the first of the season for the Purple Cubs, who almost pulled this one out with a four-run ninth inning rally.

Mike Morgan started on the mound for the Purple and went the distance, giving up 10 hits, fanning five, and walking a like number. Vincenzi did the hurling for the B.C., and proved very effective, scattering eight singles. He was the victim, however, of a rather porous defense.

For eight innings the Maroon and Gold seemed invincible, as they jumped into an early lead by scoring single tallies in the first, and sixth, and apparently put the game on ice with two in the eighth. Then in the ninth after Jack Concannon had flied to left, Manning reached when Hewes of B.C. booted his grounder. John Felch flied to Collins for the second out, and Carriglia, batting for Blinn, singled. Then third baseman Sullivan muffed Moss' grounder to load the bases. Morgan, then helped his own cause by hitting a long drive to right, which rightfielder Callahan misjudged, scoring four runs and sending the game into overtime.

In the bottom of the 11th, Bob Callahan doubled and rode home with the winning run on a single to center.

Purple Pennings

FINALE AND THANKS

With this issue, the Class of '49 bows out of the various posts held on this weekly chronicle of student life (quote from the catalogue of some year). After hashing around the little cubby-hole on lower Carlin for four years, it will seem rather funny not to be heading here on Monday nights (and all the other ones in the week, as of this year) to go to work. It's been interesting, if very irritating at times. Now, Bill Eagan can let his ulcers settle down to rest and the inhabitant of this corner can relax and let the '50 crew take over the weekly headaches.

That's enough of that trivia, but there must be one final addition. A sincere thanks that is due individually and en masse to numerous persons around these parts . . . To Jack McNally, Dave Anderson, Tom Hewes and others who have pitched in with plenty of time and work in getting out these sports pages, particularly, Photog Jim Kehoe . . . To Eagan and his brain trust for putting up with our occasional weird ideas . . . To the various members of the faculty whom we have had to plague during the past year, chiefly, Father Barry . . . To the coaches who have helped us so much in aiding us to get data together, Bill Osmani, Buster Sheary, Bart Sullivan, Jack Barry, Hop Riopel . . . To Bill O'Connell of the A.A. for the help he's given us . . . To the athletic stars and hopefuls who have given us the matter to fill these spaces . . . And, certainly, to you, those who read this weekly scrawl and add your comments, good and bad, which mean a good deal, whether followed or not.

THAT TOSSING WILL BE NEEDED

The sensational pitching that Jack Barry is getting from his mound staff will come in mighty handy with the strenuous schedule facing the nine in the remaining part of the slate. Villanova tomorrow and Dartmouth and Brown next week will be a rugged enough assignment for the depleted hurling crew. Then, starting with the New York City trip, the Crusaders face five opponents in eight days, N.Y.U. and Fordham down there, Columbia and B.C. here and another crack at Yale down in New Haven. Those last two battles will settle our hash as regards any possibility for the NCAA bid, though there are the two later annual clashes with the Eagles to be considered. We're still not out of it, barring the boys from the Heights, since several of our players still think Yale was one of the poorer teams that we have faced.

WHA' HOPPEN' ? ? ?

The tennis team sure got their lumps when they stuck their necks out during the past week. They figured to lose to Springfield and Rhode Island State, two New England powerhouses in tennis, but the shellacking that the Purple netters took from B.U. on top of Amherst's surprise win really sank any hopes of a decent season record. The H.C. racqueteers still have a possible replay of the rained-out B.C. match and a breather with Suffolk on tap, but will get some more trouble with the last two frays with M.I.T. and Brown, neither of which is a soft touch.

The golfers, despite the trouncing they took in the NCAA eliminations, redeemed some of their reputé by soundly thrashing Devens. This weekend will see the annual playing of the New England Intercollegiates. Frankly, the Cross doesn't have a ghost of a chance for the team title, but the individual crown isn't beyond the reach of some of the Purple linksmen, particularly Tracy Mehr, who hit the semi-final round last season. Tracy may get some competition from our own ranks, chiefly Dick Eagan, with Paul McEvoy and Bill Blackham as possible darkhorses, since both have been fairly hot this season.

TRACK TEAM TITLE ? ? ? MAYBE

It's a little early to be discussing a possible team championship for the Crusader tracksters since the New England Intercollegiates are a week away, but it's a distinct possibility. Bill Gould, George Gallogly, Dick Ahern, Barry Reed, etc. all have championship potentialities. However, those dual meets with B.C. (tomorrow) and Devens (Monday) are prior matters.

FROSH SAILORS TOP B.C., U.N.H.; VARSITY COPS 3RD

The Holy Cross Freshmen posted a fine victory last Sunday as they sailed right past Boston College and the U. of New Hampshire in a meet held at Great Bay in Durham, N. H. Scoring 22 points to the Eagles' 20 and the team's 13, they also ranked on top in individual honors. In a three-way tie for individual laurels the two Crusader skippers, Bill Mergenthaler and Bill Brine each collected 11 points. Only George Adams of B.C. who also tallied 11 markers kept the Purple from a complete sweep.

In the six races held, the Purple sailors walked off with three first places, and two seconds. A breakdown in one race, due to rudder damage, averaged other scores, and so the Yachtmen from the hill were enabled to hoist the victory flag over the Holy Cross entry.

The crewmen for the Crusaders were Bill Heiart and John Leemhuis. This victory ends the spring season for the sailing team. At a recent meeting of the club this year's officers were re-elected for the 49-50 competition. They are: Dick McCarthy, commodore; George McVey, vice-commodore, and treasurer; Bill Mergenthaler, secretary.

At a meet held at Mystic Lakes at Tufts the Holy Cross varsity sailors tied for third place with Dartmouth last Sunday. The winning squad was Northeastern with 65 points with the U. of New Hampshire a close second with 62. The Crusaders and Dartmouth each tallied 53, and Tufts with 43 and W.P.I. with 38 complete the list of competitors. Dick McCarthy and Clune Walsh skippered for the Purple.

FROSH GAMES

This ended the Purple Frosh's four-game winning streak, during which they had averaged 15 runs a game.

A fine piece of relief work by Mike Morgan went for naught Wednesday afternoon as the Holy Cross Freshmen dropped a 6-3 decision to the Providence yearlings. The contest was staged on Fitton Field before a shivering crowd.

An inability to hit when it was necessary cost the Purple the game. They stranded 17 runners, and left the bases full three times. In the second inning they loaded the sacks with none out but the first Providence pitcher, Bill Fagan, shut the door on them.

Providence scored two after two were out in the top of the first off the Crusader starting pitcher, Leo Cadrin, on two singles, an error and a hit batsman. They knocked Cadrin out in the third with two hits and a walk, one of the hits being a home run by short-stop Sulavik. Mike Morgan came in and allowed only three hits the rest of the way, two of these scratches. Providence got their last run in the ninth inning on two of these hits.

The Purple Freshmen pried a run from Fagan in the first inning on a double by Johnny Turco, who gathered three hits, and a single by Jack Concannon. They added one in the sixth against Bill McKeon on a walk with the bases full. Their final tally came in the last of the ninth, as pinch-hitter Frank Matrango singled, took second on Dick Blinn's one-baser, and came around to score on two successive force plays at second.

TENNIS TEAM LOSES TO B. U. R. I. STATE AND SPRINGFIELD

Watson 8-6, 4-6, 6-2 and Ed Twomey and Bob Mann also went down to defeat for the first time losing to Caldwell and Barry 4-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Bow to Rams, 7-2

Last Monday, the tennis team traveled to Kingston, R.I., to meet the Rhode Island State netmen. They went down to their third defeat of the season, but really put up a battle before losing, 7-2.

Richard Sargeson of State defeated Feuerbach 6-1, 5-7, 6-2, in one of the better matches of the day. Sargeson simply outlasted Fred to record a well earned decision. Reim lost to William Sharry 3-6, 3-6. Kierce also lost, but not before he gave John Burdick plenty of trouble. The scores of this match were 11-9 and 6-3.

Jack Walsh managed to salvage some little glory for Holy Cross by defeating Richard Klein by 6-4, 6-4. Bill Luby lost to Walter Bergman by scores of 3-6 and 1-6 while Pete Harrity went down to defeat at the hands of Royal Wales, 6-4, 4-6, 2-6. Harrity really extended Wales in the first set, but the State man was just too much for him.

All three doubles matches were close affairs, but the Cross only managed to win one. Bob Mann and Ed Twomey defeated Jack Staton and Marshall Rakusin 4-6, 6-4, 6-1. This was a hard-fought battle all the way. Feuerbach and Reim lost to Burdick and Sargeson by scores of 4-6, 7-5, and 3-6 while Kierce and Walsh lost to Bergman and Shary 4-6 and 6-8.

Wednesday afternoon at Springfield, the Purple netmen dropped their third consecutive match as the Gymnasts shut them out, 9-0. This is the worst defeat of the season for the netmen, but since Springfield has one of the best tennis teams in the East, the Cross need feel no shame.

Frank Reim had the misfortune of meeting Ed Crocker, one of the outstanding amateur tennis players in the East, and the Springfield ace quickly disposed of him in straight sets, 6-0, 6-3. Crocker displayed an excellent service, and his back hand was something to marvel about.

Gerry Kierce was defeated by George Taylor in straight sets, 9-7, 6-3. Gerry extended Taylor in the first set, but Taylor outlasted him. Al Tatem defeated Bill Luby 6-0, 6-1 while Tom Cartmill downed Pete Harrity, 6-3, 6-2.

Lloyd McDonald proved too much for Jack Walsh as he eliminated him, 6-2, 6-3. Bob Mann won the only set of the day for the Purple by defeating Dick Geser in the first set, 6-4, but Geser came back to take two straight 6-1, 6-1.

All three Purple doubles combinations went down to defeat. Reim and Kierce lost to Crocker and Taylor, 6-2, 6-3; Luby and Harrity were defeated by Cartmill and Bosworth, 6-3, 6-2; and Mann and Ed Twomey lost to Tatem and Craver, 6-0, 6-2.

CROSS' FASTEST HUMAN

Bill Gould, the Crusader's sprint sensation, snaps the tape in winning the 100-yard dash in the dual meet with Providence on Fitton Field a week ago. Gould, who ran a 9.8 in this event two weeks ago, is followed by Bobby Farrell (far left), 3rd; Fran Murphy (partially hidden by Gould), 2nd and a lonely Providence runner on the right.

Purple Trackmen Humble Providence 94-22; Sweep Eight Events; Gallogly, Gould, Reed, Kelley Star

Posting clean sweeps in eight out of 13 events, the Holy Cross track team hung up a 94 to 22 triumph over a game but out-classed Providence College in the first dual meet of the Crusaders' season.

Bill Gould, George Gallogly, Barry Reed and Dan Kelley were the chief engineers of the rout, amassing 45 points among them, more than twice the total of the entire PC squad. Gould and Gallogly were the day's only double winners, the former copying the sprints and the latter taking honors in the discus and javelin. "Iron man" Gallogly picked up a second place in both the hammer and the shot to run his total points for the meet up to 16.

Barry Reed piled up 11 points in the 440 the high jump and the pole vault, while teammate Dan Kelley accounted for eight more by virtue of a first place in the high jump and a second in the broad jump. Ed Finn took first place in the latter event with a leap of 20 ft. 5½ inches.

Other winners for the Cross were Ken Oberlin in the shot put and George McVey in the two mile run. Only three entries competed in the mile run and all of these represented the Purple. Dick Ahern, Bill Feeney and Dick McCarthy finished in a triple tie for first place.

From the Providence point of view, there were but two bright spots in the day's proceedings. Outstanding for the Friars were Jack Shanley in the pole vault and Bill Sheery in the 880.

Shanley annexed his specialty with a leap of 11 ft. 6 in. while Sheery's strong finish in the half mile nosed out the Cross' Ahern at the tape. Sheery was clocked in the excellent time of 1:58. The losers' only other win was gained by Farentino in the hammer throw.

Next Saturday the Purple trackmen will trek to Boston to engage the B.C. Eagles in a dual meet at Alumni Field. The Bostons have shown little so far this season and it is likely that another win will be added to the long list of the Crusaders' decisions over the Eagles. The only other item on the Purple track agenda before the New England Intercollegiate meet is a meeting with Devens College next Monday.

GOLFERS CONQUER DEVENS, M.I.T. FALL TO DARTMOUTH AND BROWN

Crusaders Place Third in District Eliminations Of Eastern Intercollegiate Golf Association

Tuesday afternoon at the Wachusett Country Club the Holy Cross golf team wound up their regular season by romping over the University of Mass. at Devens 6-1.

Tracy Mehr was low medalist for the day with a 75. Mehr defeated Jim Devlin who shot a low 79, 4 and 2. Bill Blackham defeated Bill Robson by the same score 4 and 2.

Dick Eagan recovered his winning ways as he stopped Jack Needham 7 and 5. Paul McEvoy also beat Frank Cencak 7 and 5.

Bucky Roland won the only match for Devens as he triumphed over Bill Wise 3 and 2. However, the Cross came right back to win the next two matches with Dave Keaney topping Lou Ciso 6 and 5 and John Nagle coming out victorious over Al Griggs 3 and 2.

Third in NCAA Trial

The Holy Cross golf team participated in the district eliminations of the Eastern Intercollegiate Golf Association which were held at the Blue Hill Country Club in Canton, Mass. The Purple golfers engaged in three matches as they defeated M.I.T., 5-2 and bowed to Brown, 5-2 and Dartmouth, 7-0, taking third place in the tourney.

On Friday the Crusaders had an easy time in defeating the Engineers from Boston 5-2. Tracy Mehr started the rout by beating Neil Morrison 5 and 4.

Captain Bill Blackham picked up where Mehr left off as he defeated Tim Chisholm 2 and 1.

Jim Fuller put M.I.T. into the win column for the first time as he won out over Dick Eagan 4 and 3.

Paul McEvoy dispelled any hopes that the Tech boys had of tying the contest by knocking over Jack Corrie 5 and 3.

Bob Bean won the final match for M.I.T. as he edged out Bill Wise 5 and 4.

Dave Keaney beat Norman Tisdale 3 and 2 and John Nagle completed the romp by defeating Dave Schoeffel 6 and 5.

Brown Final Winner

On Saturday morning the Cross bowed to Brown University 5-2. The Brown team that went on to win the elimination tournament had too much power for the Purple.

Tracy Mehr started the morning off right by defeating Chuck Johnson 3 and 2. However, the joy was short lived as that was only one of the two matches that our linksmen won all day.

Brown won the next four matches. Marty Gresh started the ball rolling by stopping Bill Blackham 3 and 2. Then, John Gibney defeated Dick Eagan 3 and 2. Phil Ross beat Paul McEvoy 2 and 1.

Rip Connors knocked over Bill Wise 4 and 3 before Dave Keaney finally put an end to the onslaught by beating Joe Daggett 3 and 2.

Dick Gibney, brother of John, cut short John Nagle's win streak as he stopped the Cross' playing manager 3 and 2.

Routed By Big Green

On Saturday afternoon Dartmouth inflicted the second shut out of the season on the Purple, 7-0.

The Indians' Duke Carey defeated Tracy Mehr 3 and 2. Bill Tarlow beat Bill Blackham 3 and 2. Tom McMahon stopped Dick Eagan 5 and 4. John Southworth toppled Paul McEvoy 5 and 4, Mike Marchese defeated Billy Wise 2 and 1 and Henry Exall came out on top over Dave Keaney 3 and 1.

John Nagle and Scott Probasco engaged in the most thrilling match of the weekend. After being two down with four holes left Probasco displayed some brilliant golf to come through with a one up victory over Nagle on the 20th hole.

Sports Fete Held Monday in Kimball

A new tradition on the hill, the Annual Sports Banquet, was inaugurated last Monday evening in Kimball Hall.

Following the dinner, Toastmaster Phil O'Rourke gave an introductory message lauding both our stellar athletes and also the members of the class of '49 who were attending their last banquet on the hill. Following Phil's greeting Mark D. Atchinson, President of the Student Government, addressed the student body, thanking them for their loyal support.

Mr. Eugene Flynn, Director of Athletics, expressed his admiration for the loyalty and enthusiasm of all the squads during the year. He paid special tribute to the Senior Class.

Phil O'Rourke then introduced the captains of the various teams. Among those who spoke were Jim Reilly, Joe Mullaney, Eddie Polak, Barry Reed, Leo Troy and Dick McCarthy. Dan Moore spoke in behalf of the Intramural squads.

Sam Cataudella then offered a musical interlude of two songs which were very warmly received.

Following this, Mr. Gus Cervini, '28, a well known Holy Cross Alumnus, addressed the banquet and spoke on true Holy Cross spirit.

Phil Murphy, acting president of the class of '49, introduced the Very Reverend Fr. John A. O'Brien, S.J., Rector. Father O'Brien expressed his (Turn to Page Ten)

OUTING CLUB MAKES SCHEDULE FOR NEXT YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

A joint meeting of the Executive Board and Board of Trustees of the Outing Club was held last Tuesday night. A list of activities was decided upon. These plans have now been submitted to the Social Activities Committee of the Student Government.

However, arrangements have been made concerning the outdoor activities of the club. It will again sponsor golf and horseback riding, which by the way, are still open this year with plenty of good days left. Jack Dowd, chairman of the Outing Club, said that those interested in golf should see him to obtain the badges now necessary in order to use the links privilege.

The details involving a large scale tennis tournament have been thoroughly ironed out. It will be a "must" on next year's schedule. Swimming and boating facilities will also be provided for the members.

History Society Elects O'Connor Combined Groups At Banquet Thursday: Speakers to Be Present

On Thursday evening, May 10, the History Society elected new officers for the next scholastic year. The duties of President were entrusted to Warren B. O'Connor, '50, while William J. Wholean, '51, and James Schouman, '52, will serve as Vice-President and Secretary, respectively.

Plans were also completed for the annual joint banquet of the resident and the day-student branches, which took place last night at Putnam and Thurston's Restaurant.

"The North Atlantic Pact" and "Compulsory Health Insurance" were the topics discussed by Jim Hannan and Jim Schouman at this meeting, with a heated discussion following. The group went on record as favoring the Atlantic Pact and opposing the Medical Health Program.

Rector to Conduct Sodality Reception

The Day Student Sodality of Our Lady will receive 33 new members at special exercises at 12:30 P.M. in the Chapel next Monday. Rev. Father Rector will preside. John M. Liubauskas is the instructor of candidates.

The names announced by Rev. Jeremiah Donovan, S.J., moderator, are: semester eight: John A. Riordan. Semester six: George F. Kelleher and William N. Russell. Semester four: Leo R. Corazzini, Paul A. Kiritsy, John R. Lucey, Lorenzo A. Merola, Cornelius F. O'Leary, and Robert J. Maher. Semester two: William A. Barry, Harry A. Boyle, Foster J. Burbank, Richard E. Cormier, John J. Crotty, Robert J. Cullen, John J. Donoghue, Philip J. Egan, James J. Fitzgibbons, Harold D. Gagnon, Thomas F. Gilmartin, Robert W. Hafey, William J. Hersey, Simon C. Kelly, Richard P. Kelleher, Robert B. ED KENNEDY SPEAKS TO JUNIOR SECTIONS

Edward A. Kennedy, Jr., '34, Director of the Placement Office, again warns all juniors that they should be thinking during the summer months of the type of work into which they would like to go upon graduation.

Because of the large number of graduates and the limited number of jobs that will be available, the sooner all the necessary information is in the hands of the Placement Office, the sooner they will be able to complete their plans for interviews, etc.

Mr. Kennedy also announced that Career Conferences will be held weekly next year, as they were this year, so that students may hear speakers from the various fields.

H.C. THESPIANS ELECT NORTH

Grisanti, Silverson Complete New Slate

On Monday, May 9, the Dramatic Society held its final meeting of the year in Fenwick Auditorium. Nominations were held for the various officers for the coming year, and in the final elections, Jack North, '50, was named president. Gene Grisanti, '51, is the new vice-president, and Lawrence Silverson, '52, is the secretary-treasurer.

In addition to the elections, awards were made for excellence in dramatics for the year, 1948. In the one-act plays, to Ralph Lancaster, '52, for his role in "Nettie", went first prize.

LIBRARY GIFT

The Library has recently received as a gift 1045 volumes from the collection of Dr. George Hermann Derry, '99. Dr. Derry was a former faculty member at Holy Cross and later was President of Marygrove College in Detroit and of St. Joseph's College in Portland, Maine.

Many of the volumes received from his collection, through the generosity of Mrs. Derry, are especially useful for our Library. They are now being catalogued and will soon be available for use.

Norman Dusseault, '51, was awarded second prize for his performance in "Richard II", and Gene Grisanti, '51, was given the prize for the best director. For their role in "The Rivals", of last November, Lawrence Silverson and John Moynagh, '49, also won a first prize.

Dean to Conduct Sodality Reception

Ninety-eight candidates from the resident students will be received next Monday by Rev. James E. FitzGerald, S.J., Dean of the College, into the Sodality of Our Lady. The ceremony will begin at 7:00 P.M.

Father Dean will be assisted at the ceremonies by Fathers Delaney, Hart and McKenna. John McCabe, assisted by Tom Bush, will instruct the candidates. Other students on the committee are Phil Gallagher, Jim Haggerty, Ed Scully, Clif Fisher, John Cooney, Joe Smith, John Concannon, William Muldoon, John Kapp, John Monaghan, and Dennis Lyons.
